

What Did We Learn from Maine's Bicentennial? Reflecting on History and the Statehood Era

This illustrated presentation and discussion uses the recent commemoration of Maine statehood to reflect on the place of history in the contemporary US and the surprising persistence of issues from Maine's statehood era to today. The process that culminated in Maine's formal separation from Massachusetts in 1820 can help us to better understand:

- the explosive place of slavery vis-a-vis the Maine-Missouri Crisis
- the uncertain location of the international border and regional diversity
- sharp partisan conflict and the "two Maines"
- Wabanaki sovereignty

Presented by

Dr. Liam Riorden

Bird & Bird Professor of History, University of Maine

Sunday, June 26, 2022

2:00 p.m.

Old Town Museum

353 Main Street

Old Town, Maine

This event is free and open to all! Please join us.

OLD TOWN MUSEUM

Established 1976